
CITY OF SEDRO-WOOLLEY

Special Meeting of the City Council
July 17, 2015 – 10:00 A.M. – City of Sedro-Woolley Council Chambers

ROLL CALL: Present: Mayor Mike Anderson, Councilmembers: Kevin Loy, Germaine Kornegay, Brenda Kinzer Keith Wagoner and Brett Sandström. Staff: City Supervisor/Attorney Berg. Other staff members were present in the audience.

Mayor Mike Anderson called the City of Sedro-Woolley Special Council meeting to order at 10:10 A.M.

The Port of Skagit County chaired the joint meeting between the Port of Skagit County, Skagit County and the City of Sedro-Woolley.

Peter Janicki gave a report on the status of Janicki Bioenergy and the OmniProcessor.

Mike Stringer and Bill Hagen of Maul Foster & Alorgi, Inc. gave an update on the planning process including the following:

- Annexation
- Environmental Impact Statement
- Subarea Plan
- Next Steps in the Process

Questions were asked by Councilmembers Wagoner, Loy, Kornegay, Sandström and Kinzer.

Tim Halloran, Skagit County Administrator updated the group on behavioral health issues.

Patsy Martin, Port of Skagit County Executive Director presented a summary of the Port's draft proposal to the Department of Enterprise Services. Questions and discussion followed.

Public comments were taken. An unidentified person from the Skagit Co. Historical Museum spoke regarding listing of artifacts.

The meeting adjourned at 11:06 A.M.